Attitude at Camp:

Running For Your Life encourages all Athletes to come to Camp with a positive attitude, willing to learn new skills and to meet new friends. We look forward to the development of skill specific training for your child and fun games and activities designed to promote the skills they have learned.

Athletes who are a distraction to others will be asked to sit out from the activities and issues will be addressed with parents. It is our goal to keep all sessions fun, interactive, creative and positive.
